AFFAIRS IN BROOKLYN.

CHARGED WITH STARVING HIS WIFE. MRS. STRATTON, WHOSE HUSBAND IS AN OCTO-GENARIAN, SAYS THAT HE FED HER

ON MILE AND ICE.

The examination of Eliphalet Stratton, the Gates ave. octogenarian, on the charge of starving his young wife, was conducted by Police Justice Haggerty yes terday in the Myrtle-ave, police court. Mr. Strattor was arrested on July 6. Mrs. Stratton was first ex She looked pale and somewhat emaci ated. According to her testimony she married Mr. Stratton three years ago, when he was eighty years old. On the Friday of the week before her husband was arrested he gave her nothing to eat, she said, and on Saturday she was fed by a neighbor, Mrs. Jadwin. Her husband had given her half a glass of milk day. Later in the day she had had a conversation with her husband, and he had said that neither of them would live long. Her husband had objected to Mrs. Jadwin coming to see her, and the next day Mrs. Jadwin had passed food to her by means of a pole from the second-story window in the rear. On Monday her husband had given her glass of milk, and on Tuesday two glasses. The day her husband was arrested all she had was a piece that on the Sunday before the arrest of her husband he and Dr. Rushmore talked with her about her going to Coney Island to board. She had refused to go because her husband would not sign an agreement not to sell the house when she was away.

Dr. J. D. Rushmore testified that Mrs. Stratton h been under his care for a year and a half. She was suffering from peritonitis, he said, which affected the appetite and required especial food and medicine hich he prescribed. He admitted that he had tole Mrs. Jadwin and Detective Delehanty that Mrs. Strat-

Mrs. Jadwin and Detective Delehanty that Mrs. Stratton should be removed from her home, as she was not getting proper eare and nourishment.

Mr. Stratton was then called. He testified that he never tried to starve his wife and that he farnished notifyshing food for her. He preduced bills for groceries and provisions showing $205 paid from November, 1892, to May, 1893. He testified that his butcher's bills were from $10 to $30 a month. The week before he was arrested he had bought lamb chops, strawberries, roast lamb and vegetables. His evidence was corroborated by his grocer and butcher. Decision of the matter was reserved until a week from 10-morrew.

THE BISHOP REMOVES FATHER GANNON. HIS TRANSFER TO ANOTHER CHURCH SAID TO BE DUE TO HIS SYMPATHY WITH

The Rev. E. N. Gannon has been removed by Bishop McDonnell from the post of assistant paster of the Roman Catholic Church of the Sacred Peart, at ont and Park aves., where he has been five years. He has been assigned to a like office in Church of Our Lady of Victory, at McDonough-s and Throop-ave. The transfer has caused much dis cussion among Father Gannon's friends. It is aleged that his removal was due to his sympathy with Dr. McGlynn and his anti-poverty views Father Gannon removed the furniture from the parish house of his former church to his new home When asked about his reneval he said "I desire to say nothing about my transfer. A priest is like a soldier. He receives orders and must obey them irrespective of his own feelings or desires. would not affirm or deny that he had written 3 letter of remonstrance to Bisl.op McDonnell, de scribing his work for the parish of the Sacred Heart and asking the reason for his transfer.

Father Gannon's friends in the parish desired to get up a petition to the Bishep asking that he be get up a pectuon to the Bishap assumption allowed to remain, but he declined to permit it. One of them said that Father Gannon and tried to impress on the people of the parish the need of cleanliness, thrift and sobriety, and that he quoted Dr. McGlynn in regard to these things, approving of the stand he took for the independence and rights of DEATH FROM A KICK AT A FOOTBALL GAME. Michael Clynn, twenty-seven years old, of No. 9 Fourth-st., died yesterday from the effects of a kiel received in the abdomen at a football match in Ridgewood Park on Sunday. The game was played by the Emmetts and the Faugh-a-Ballaghs, of South Brook Clynn was kicked in the abdomen by William conlon, thirty-five years old, of Garnet and Clinton sts. The latter was arrested, and alleged that if he injured Clynn it was by accident. He was told to swait the Coroner's inquest. The friends of Clynn refused to permit an autopsy yesterday afternon.

THEY WANT NO TROLIES IN MADISON ST. A protest was made to Mayor Boody in behalf o sidents of Madison st. yesterday against his sign ing the resolutions of the Aldermen adopted on Mon day granting a franchise for a trolley road in that The residents ask that a hearing be granted to the persons interested, in order that they may show why the resolutions should be vetoed. The Mayor appointed 10 a. m. to-morrow for the hearing.

GATHERED ABOUT THE TOWN.

Mrs. Margaret Behnken, who appeared in the City Court yesterday with her son John, who was sum moned to show cause why he should not be prosecuted for contempt in falling to obey an order of the Court created so much disturbance that she had to be ejected by Court Officer Doyle, under orders from Judge Osborne. She was removed by force, and continued her vituperations as long as she was within hearing.

Six new cases of smallpox have come to light in the Eastern District, the patients being in most cases children. In all, eighteen cases have been discov ered within two weeks. The patients are in the Flatbush Hospital for Contagious Diseases.

The Board of Supervisors will hold a special meet ing at hook to-day and pass resolutions of respect for Edward B. Cadley, clerk of the board for thirty-two years, and then attend his funeral, in St. Augustine's Church, in a body. Fight of the Supervisors will serve as pallbearers.

Mayor Boody failed to get an order for the minutes of the Grand Jury yesterday. Corporation Counsel Jenks drew up an order for Judge Moore to sign, but the latter wished it submitted to District-Attorne Ridgway first. Mr. Ridgway had gone to New York, and when he returned Judge Moore had gone home. The order is in the hands of the Clerk of the Court of Sessions, and will be signed to-day. District-At torney Ridgway intimated that it might be several days before the copy of the testimony was written out for the Mayor from the notes of the stenographer.

DOGS NOT FIRST-CLASS PASSENGERS.

Mrs. Maria L. Moore, of No. 132 Madison ave. elegantly attired and greatly agitated, was arraigned complainant was John Hodges, a conductor on Fourth-ave, streetcar line, Hodges said that Mrs. Moore boarded his car carrying a pet dog. He remonstrated, telling her that the rules of the road forbade him to permit her to carry the dog upon the car. At this she became greatly excited, talked in a manner that hurt his feelings and refused to leave He was finally compelled to call a police man and have her arrested. On being arraigned Justice Koch put the usual formal questions as to her age, occupation, etc. She became indignant at this and declined to reply. In measured accents the justice then addressed her: "Madame, all prisoners are equal before the law, and all stand upon the sam before this bench; it behooves you to recognize

Mrs. Moore thereupon became tearful and declared that she was weak and nervous. The court op preciated this and said he would dismiss the case. But she declared that it must not be dismissed; sh had been subjected to an indignity in being arrested and she demanded an opportunity to procure sounsel and vindicate herself. So Justice Kocif obligingly continued the hearing until to-day.

REPUBLICAN EMPLOYES DISCHARGED.

Twenty-one employes of Ellis Island were dicharged yesterday afternoon. The reason given for their dismissal was that immigration had begun to decrease, and that it was necessary to economize. is said on good authority, however, that the places of the discharged employes, who are Republicate, will be filled in a few weeks by able-bodied Democrats. The list includes three watchmen, three registry clerks, three gatemen, three firemen, two messengers, several laborers and a scrubwoman.

MEMBERS OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD GUILD SAY THAT YOUNG BLOCK 12 INNOCENT.

A peculiar story of police and police court methods is reported by the Neighborhood Guild, No. 26 Delancey-st., which is under the management of the Uni-versity Settlement Society. Monday night Morris Block, who is a member of the club, and five other boys, all under sixteen years old, were starding at Eldridge and Delancey sts. shortly before 10 o'clock talking, when Policeman Swartz, of the Essex Market Squad, rushed across the street, and without a word, kicked and cuffed Rlock and then arrested him.

After much trouble ball was found by Messrs Veitter and Ordway, of the Guild, who say that the sergeant was brutal, threatening again to lock up the boy for reading the bail paper before signing it Yesterday morning Justice Voorhis fined Block $1 on Swartz's charge of disorderly conduct and throwing watermelon rinds, although Mr. Ordway and five others were present in court ready to testify to his innocence. Those in charge of the Guild are indig ant at the affair, and will have it thoroughly investigated.

RAPID TRANSIT TO THE CATSKILLS.

Catskill Mountain House, N. Mistakes are made by various papers in referring to the location of the Otis Elexating Rallway. It comes up the South Mountain 300 feet north of the Cat-kill Mountain House, and not on Kaaterskill Mountain, which is one fille away. Passengers for the Hotel Kaaterskill coming up the Otis take a train on the Kaaterskill Railroad, and in four minutes arrive at Kaaterskill station, which is at the south end of South Lake and one mile from the Otis Elevating Railway. While this elevating railroad is 7,000 feet in length, it rises 1,660 feet, and is the largest single cable road of the station of the fight. 1.660 feet, and is the largest single cable road of the kind in the world. THE PILOT HAD A LIST TO PORT.

WHEN THE SHIPMASTER GOT THROUGH WITH HIM HE HAD ALSO TWO BLACK EYES.

There was a merry little war on board New York Pilot Boat No. 8 the other day. The boat was lying at her pier at Fifty-fifth-st., South Brooklyn. last Friday, when J. J. Canvin, with the whole of his name and a "jag," went on board. The master formidable Streets for meeter hits, with a total the thirty-three bases. Rusie did superoly until the Gints of the boat, Captain David S. Nicolay, spoke scorning a winning lead, and then he reserved his strength fully of Pilot Canvin's condition. There was a hot interchange of words, followed by a crossfire of blows. pilot came out of the encounter with both eyes blackened. The pilot recied below with a heavy list to port and a smashed figurehead, and proceeded to drink more beer. He said that owing to his blackened eyes he was not fit to be on duty, and that he might just as well find solace in the cup. The last state of

Mr. Canvin, when sober, apologized to the master of the boat, but Captain Nicolay refused to accept his apology and made a complaint before the Board of Filot Commissioners. Yesterday the Pilot Board suspended Mr. Canvin for three months.

THE HUMIDITY DECREASED.

THAT WAS THE ONLY GRAIN OF COMPORT OF THE SWELTERING CITY-PROSTRA-TIONS BY THE HEAT.

The comparison of the adjective hat was carried through various degrees yesterday until it reached the superlative between 2 and 3 p.m. The temperature at s a. m. was 75 degrees, and at 2 p. m. the thre at 8 a. m. was to degrees, and at 2 p. m. the thermometer indicated the maximum temperature of 91 degrees. The air was less humid than the day before, but the intense heat made up for the lower humidity. The city was exceedingly uncomfortable come in front of No. 29 Houston st. He was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital.

John Standon, of No. 863 Tenth-ave., was taken to known celt Hospital at 1:45 p. m. He had been prostrated at No. 881 Tenth-ave.

ON THE STREET IN NIGHT DRESS.

THE SPRING-LOCK HAD CAUGHT AND MR. WES-TERVELT FOUND HIMSELF IN A DE-PLORABLE PLIGHT.

Edward Westervelt arose at 4:30 a. m. yesterday and went upon the front porch of his house, in Hackensack, N. J., to get his morning paper. He sat down on the step to glance over the news, and while he was thus engaged the wind blew the door shut and the spring lock caught. Ar. Westervelt was dressed in his nightrobe and did not have his keys. The lower floor of the house is guarded by solid wooden chutters, and there was no one inside. The family, with the exception of Mr. Westervell, are at Asbury Park. The house is situated in one of the most aristocratic parts of the place, and Mr. Westervelt did not dare to remain long where he was.

There were open windows on the second story, and Mr. Westervelt decided to go to a lumber yard six Mocks away and get a ladder. He recognized that the trip was a risky one, as some of his neighbors might be up before he returned and catch him in his plight. He hurried to the lumber yard and secured the ladder. All went well until he was within a block of his own house with the ladder on his back. Here he came suddenly on a party of young women from a neighboring house, who were out for a morning walk. The young women gave one look at the whitecobed figure and, with a chorus of shriels, fled. Mr. Westervelt followed them with the ladder on shoulder, and the young women thought he was chasing them. Of course he was only hurrying to get to his own house. The faster Mr. Westervelt ran, londer the young women screamed. Finally Mr. Westerveit gained his own yard, and with a gasp of rejoicing placed the ladder against the house. In a moment he was in-ide. Meanwhile the women ran home, and told how a white-robed figure had followed them with a big cinb, and how unearthly yells were

MISS COGHLAN TO GIVE OSCAR WILDE'S PLAY. Charles Frohman, who secured the American rights of Oscar Wilde's new sathical play, "A Woman of No importance," yesterday contracted with Miss Rose Cogolian that she should control and play the piece, with herself and her brother, Charles Cogolian; in the leading parts. Since Mr. Frohman's return from London he has been auxious to arrange for Mr. and Miss Coghlan to appear in his production of the play. That being impossible, he thought the arrangement should be made by which the play should become the prop-erty of Miss Coghlan, knowing that she would give it a fine cast and a good production.

The play is at present rünning at the Haymarket, in London, with Beerbohm Tree in one leading part and Mrs. Bernard-Beere in the other. The parts played by Mr. Tree and Mrs. Bernard-Beere are said to be admirably saited to Mr. and Miss Coghlan. It will be produced at the Fifth Avenue Theatre, where Miss oghlan has an engagement for six weeks, beginning a December, and will then be taken to the other large
